Education

A.B. Harvard College, with honors in physicsPhD University of Wisconsin-Madison in mathematics under Richard Brualdi (with a minor in education)

Professional Experience

Junior high school math teacher, Foote School, New Haven, CT 1970-72 Taught arithmetic in primary school in Tanzania 1973 Tutored all failing math students at Hebron Academy in Maine 1974 Taught math, science, and reading at Indian Community School, a high school for Native Americans in Milwaukee 1975-76 Graduate Teaching Assistant in math department at University of Wisconsin-Madison 1977-83 Teacher and counselor in Summer Opportunity Program, a program to recruit and develop minority students at Univ. of Wisconsin summers 1980,1981 Assistant Professor of Mathematics at Iowa State University 1983-85 Visiting Assistant Professor at Amherst College in Massachusetts 1985-86 Fulbright Lecturer at University of Malawi 1986-87 Accompanied family to Thailand; gave lectures at Chiang Mai University 1987-88 Visiting Assistant Professor at West Virginia University 1988-89 Assistant Professor at West Virginia University 1989-96 Accompanied family to Thailand; gave lectures in Thailand 1992 Associate Professor, West Virginia University 1996-2001 Sabbatical leave at Institute for Mathematics, Academy of Sciences, Budapest 1998-99 Professor of Mathematics at West Virginia University since 2002 Visiting scholar at Shanghai Jiao Tong University 2008 Visiting scholar at Shanghai Jiao Tong University 2015

Teaching

Main graduate teaching specialties: combinatorics, graph theory, linear algebra
Teaching grants:
Fulbright grant at University of Malawi, 1986-87
Dwight D. Eisenhower Math and Science Education Act grant to teach a discrete math course for secondary math teachers by satellite TV 1995
Teaching awards:
Outstanding Teaching Assistant (one of five among all teaching assistants in College of Arts and Sciences) at Univ. of Wisconsin-Madison 1962
Jahr Williams Outstanding Teacher Award, awarded by the Henery Program et West

John Williams Outstanding Teacher Award, awarded by the Honors Program at West Virginia University 1997

Outstanding Teacher Award, Eberly College of Arts and Sciences 2002

Inducted into Mountain, an honor society at WVU which recognizes outstanding teaching and service, 2003

WVU Foundation Outstanding Teacher Award (highest teaching award at West Virginia University) 2005

Courses and Curricula designed:

Many undergraduate courses at Iowa State University and West Virginia University

Helped restructure mathematics program at University of Malawi (1986-87)

Co-authored COMAP module on fair division (1996)

Designed a satellite TV discrete math course for secondary math teachers (1995)

Helped design the capstone course for WVU math majors

Designed and taught four new graduate combinatorics courses, including coding theory and extremal set theory

Ran training sessions for Putnam Exam nearly every year since 1994.

PhD students: Matthew Cropper (1998), Yongbin Ou (2005), Ryan Hansen (2022)

Graduate student committees: Served on about 15 Masters committees and 35 PhD committees in mathematics at WVU

Served on about 25 DMA and PhD committees in music (piano) at WVU
